There were [Dm] three auld gypsies came to our hall door
They came brave and [Am] boldly-oh

It was [Dm] upstairs, downstairs the lady went,
Put on her suit of [Am] leather-oh
And [C] there was the cry all a-[Am]round her [Dm] door;
'She's away with the [C] raggle taggle [Am] gypsy-[Dm]oh'

It was [Dm] late that night when the lord came in,
Enquiring for his [Am] lady-oh
And the [C] servant girl, she [Am] says to the [Dm] lord
'She's away with the [C] raggle taggle [Am] gypsy-[Dm]oh'

'Then [Dm] saddle for me my milk-white steed
My big horse is not [Am] speedy-oh

'Tell me [Dm] how could you leave your goosefeather bed,
Your blankets strewn so [Am] comely-oh?
[C] How could you leave your [Am] new-wedded [Dm] lord,
All for a [C] raggle taggle [Am] gypsy-[Dm]oh?'

'Well, [Dm] what care I for my goosefeather bed
My blankets strewn so [Am] comely-oh?
To-[C]night I'll lie in a [Am] wide open [Dm] field
In the arms of a [C] raggle taggle [Am] gypsy-[Dm]oh'

'Tell me [Dm] how could you leave your house and land,
